TICS-FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT, &C., &C. When the people will settle the matter in [Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

FREDERICKSHALL, August 12, 1878. A grand tournament, one of those middle-age pageants so fascinating to the average Virginian, and for which extensive preparations had been made, came off on Friday, August 9th, at Jerdone Castle, the former residence of the late General Clayton G. Coleman. The tilting came off about three hundred yards from the spacious mansion, which was thrown open for the accommodation of the guests, of which there were over three hundred present, comprising a and best, not to speak of others from a distance. Fourteen knights entered the lists to contest for the privilege of crowning a queen of love and beauty and her three maids of honor.

Prior to the riding the knights were drawn up in front of the judges' stand, and received a charge from Dr. C. G. Coleman, clothed in very graceful and appropriate diction. The tilting, which began about 1 P. M., was prolonged till near sundown, and resulted in Mr. D. Q. Jennings as Knight of the Lone Star, crowning Miss Lucy O. Harris as Queen; Mr. Walter Buckner as Knight of Edgewood, crowning Miss Nannie Haley as First Maid of Honor; Mr. Robert P. Parrish as Knight of Frederickshall, crowning Miss Parrish, of Cumberland, as Second Maid of Honor, and Mr. James Wash crowning Miss Mary E. Harris as Third Maid of Honor.

The "crowning" took place at Jerdone Castle, the address being delivered by Colonel William E. Bibb, of Louisa Courthouse, the past as applicable to the present being happily blended, the matter excellently chosen, and the delivery spirited. A ball, which will be long remembered followed, lasting till daylight next morning. Professor Drumwright, with a corps of six mu-Terpsichore moving, and kept them so. without intending to be invidious, I may mention Miss Gay Miller, Miss Nannie Wig-B. F. Trice, of the Louisa Courthouse were relieved by two banquets-the first of substantials, and the second of delicacies. Much regret was expressed at the unavoidable absence of two young ladies well

Waddy Clarke, being called to Culpeper, and Miss Ida Habliston, to her home in Richmond. Most of the representative men of the county were present. Among the interested spectators of both tournament and ball I noticed Hon. D. C. Dejarnette, Colonel H. J. Parrish, of the House of Delegates, and others equally as well known. The copper-mines near Tolersville, so long worked by Dye, Curtis & Co., are soon sulphur on an extensive scale-the only establishment of the sort, it is said, in the United States. High hopes are entertained of success crowning this enterprise.

Old Louisa is again undergoing the throes of a gold excitement. Recent argentiferous outeroppings have caused several mines long idle to be lately operated with double vigor. Most of them are located from one and a haif to six miles of Tolersville, and they are being worked respectively by Messrs. John D. Jenkins, Joseph Tyler, and Ira F. Jordan: Considerable gold in times past has been gotten from these mines.

A colored excursion bailing from Richmond, and said to embrace 1,500 persons, passed Frederickshall at 12 o'clock Saturday night, bound for Staunton. Some twenty or more sons of Ham embarked at Frederickshall to join the throng.

The corn and tobacco crops in this county are generally good. The best tobacco I have seen growing in this neighborhood was on the "Spring-Garden" farm of Mr. Robert Goodwin, three miles from this

The article of politics is rather dull here, but if there is one thing more certain than another it is that the first vote of the Conservative delegates from this county will be given in the Congressional Convention soon to assemble in your city to Captain Frank V. Winston; secondly, if Winston is found to have no show, General Joseph E. Johnston will get every one of them. It is also morally certain that Captain Robert F. Moss, the present popular one-legged Confederate sheriff of Louisa, will be his own successor. These "truths" I hold to be "self-evident.

As the express train bound for Richmond at sunrise on Sunday morning was approaching the station at Frederickshall William G. Richardson, a young man aged twenty years, one of the brakemen of a freight train, then on the siding at the depot, was sent out with a red flag to signal the coming train. The express train on arriving at the depôt reported having knocked off the track and killed the body of an unknown man. The train was backed to the place, and Richardson was found with his head crushed, but still breathing. Dr. Louis Pendleton was early in attendance, and pronounced him dying when he saw him. A special engine also brought Dr. Grimes from Gordonsville, but Richardson only lived forty minutes after the accident and was dead before his arrival. He was the oldest son of Captain Billy Richardson, who has been on the road more than thirty years, and lived when off duty near the station where he lost his life. It is supposed that after planting his signal-flag he sat on the track and unconsciously fell asleep, as he had been on duty for thirty-six hours previously. He was a good son, and the untoward accident which has deprived him of life is deeply regretted. His body was lying on the track when struck, but seen G. C. W. too late to stop the train.

On yesterday, as the congregation were coming out of the church at the Courthouse, a pistol-shot was heard in the direction of Smith's bar-room. Upon inquiry it was as-certained that a difficulty had taken place between a Mr. Withers, of Danville, and Mr. Taylor, of Mt. Airy, N. C., and that the latter had shot at Withers and missed him, and would have shot the second time but for the interference of bystanders. Taylor was at once arrested and carried before Justice Witt, who bound him over to keep the choice assortment of old Louisa's bravest peace in the penalty of $1,000, and recogat our next court. Taylor gave the bond

He asked his friends to go with him to a hill near by, where he would speak without being interrupted. As Major Earle was descending from the platform a pistol-shot was fired. This was the signal for a rush by the white men present to a wagon near at hand, which was filled with arms of every description, and a general fire was opened on the followers of Lewis, and in the melée one negro was killed and several others wounded. Another fatal shooting affair occurred at Austin, Miss., this morning, between Bud Evans and William Fretwell, both parties eing reported killed.

The plan was favorably regarded, but the to attend the wedding of his son, Mr. Webb general opinion was that forty to sixty cents per day was enough. No action was taken, but a further conference will be had with the agent of the Chinese companies, who is here.

Resumption of the Potter Investigation.

NEW YORK, August 12.- The Potter investigating committee resumed its session this morning, but owing to the absence of several members no witnesses were examined. Mr. Butler asked that Stanley Matthews be summoned.

Mr. Potter said the Senator was summoned on Saturday, and replied that an important engagement at Newport would prevent his attending, and that whatever he intended to do he deemed of no consequence to the committee. From this reply Mr. Potter said he inferred that Mr. Matthews did not mean to respond to the summons. Mr. Butler remarked that if Matthews's answer meant that he would not obey the summons of the House of Representatives, the House and Senate, so that the powers of the unsatisfactory relations between Stere the sooner the issue was made the better for both can be determined. If the House has Ali and the British Government, and of the not the power to compel the attendance of witnesses, then the investigation is useless, as volunteer witnesses are always subject to suspicion.
